

Report: Training on the topic “Through Social Marketing to Changes”

Activity No A1

Organizing 5 trainings in order to improve the work of CSO, covering the topic of: writing EU project proposals, project cycle management, running of an organization and strategic planning, fundraising, online tools, etc.

Training No 2: “Through Social Marketing to Changes”

The training on the topic “Through Social Marketing to Changes” was held in the village of Gornja Lastva, Tivat, on 4-5 June 2016.

It was organized by the project partner EXPEDITIO from Kotor and attended by 28 participants, representatives of non-governmental organizations and individual participants from the towns of Kotor, Tivat, Herceg Novi and Budva.

The training was intended for non-governmental organizations in these 4 municipalities which want to learn how to promote their works and ideas and reach the largest possible number of supporters, so that it is widely known who they are, what they do and why it matters.

The training was held by Nikoleta Kosovac and Milosav Marinović, representatives of the platform “Liceulice”, which represents an innovative way of public advocacy, an attractive, fresh and original way of communicating and advocating for social innovation, inclusion, anti-discrimination, human rights, different forms of civic engagement, social cohesion and citizen participation.
